

Holly L. Smith is the mother of fallen soldier Sgt. Brandon M. Smith, Army, 82nd Airborne, and daughter, Brittany L. Smith, a University of Central Arkansas honor graduate. She and her husband have been married 38 years, and have been residents of Cabot, Arkansas for the past 30 years. Holly was raised in Illinois where she earned a high school education.

She was previously employed in the mortgage industry with 22 years of experience as a Direct Endorsement Underwriter and currently holds a Property & Casualty license through the State of Arkansas since 2008, and a CISR designation since 2012. Holly is currently employed as an Accountant with BXS Insurance, a subsidiary of BancorpSouth bank since April 2017.

She enjoys working in the garden and creating stained glass art.

Already being a part of this distinct community, Holly is dedicated to serving Gold Star Families with the highest level of compassion and understanding to adequately meet their needs. Her son served this great country with honor and integrity, and she intends to honor him in the same manner by serving those who sacrificed so much.
