

Michelle is a Military Spouse and shares three kids with her husband Ron; Blake, Victoria, Tannon & one granddaughter Shayne (Victoria's) residing in Vilonia, Arkansas.

On 27 March 2021, Ron took his life after battling PTSD for years. When we experience trauma or a severe life stressor, it is not uncommon for our lives to unravel; for some an urge for change comes from this. Michelle's passion, is bringing awareness and prevention to Veteran's Suicide.

She is actively working with Congress to extend/add to the Wounded Warriors Federal Leave Act of 2015
<https://www.change.org/PushingforwardforPointer>.